Satan's one-world government says we can be innocent and still be on death row OUR "ACTUAL INNOCENCE DOES NOT MATTER" to Rome

By Tony Alamo

"Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time" (Rev. 12:12). Jesus said, "If I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the Kingdom of God has come upon you" (Matt. 12:28, orig. Gk.). Any time the Spirit of God's Kingdom is truly manifested on earth, it will ultimately confront the strongholds of Hell.<sup>1</sup> At present, the world is the stronghold of Hell. This is the truth. It is a fact.<sup>2</sup> Wherever evil spirits have a stronghold or even a foothold in this world, you can be assured that the overcomers, which are the members of the true church of God, the body of Christ, will be engaged in spiritual

For the invisible things of Him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even His eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified Him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God [this means they don't allow God to display His power over their flesh by His

Dear Pastor Alamo,

I received your January/March World Newsletter, and all I can say is wow. You really outdid yourself with Another Pearl Harbor. This is what my thinking was also about the Bushs. I did not know about the Pope and Rome, but thanks to you, I do now. I knew all along that the Bushs were crooked. How else would they have become presidents and governors? I think the son is probably more crooked than the dad is. If you just listen to him talk in any of his speeches, you can see he is a liar. Sometimes when he expresses himself you can see the devil coming out of his face. I do not know who he thinks

"As many were astonished at Thee; His visage was so marred more than any man, and His form more than the sons of men" (Isa. 52:14).

If the Messiah's exaltation (Isa. 52:13) is astonishingly "high," His sufferings are even more astonishing. During the terrible hours before His crucifixion, the Lord Jesus was brutally manhandled, buffeted, scourged, and abused in other ways. And on the cross, the crown of thorns, the nails driven through His quivering flesh, and the consequent agony of crucifixion in which every nerve, every muscle became "a flame of torture," added to the excruciating mental agony and soul-suffering, so

The true church of Christ is not a religion.<sup>6</sup> Christ didn't come to the world to bring religion.<sup>7</sup> He came so we could, by following God's planned procedures, have God's life, which is eternal, living in us.<sup>8</sup> He also came so we could "have [eternal] life...more abundantly. Dear Sir,

I am very happy to write you this letter. I hope by the grace of God you are fine. I am also fine by the grace of God. My motive of writing you this letter is that one of my junior brothers was reading a certain book which is known as The Messiah. I told him that when he finished reading the book, he should give it to me, so that I will also read it. The moment he finished reading the book he gave it to me. The moment I finished reading the book, I was sorry for my sins, so I prayed to God that He should forgive me all my sins that I have done against Him. After the prayer, I asked my brother where did he buy this important book. He told me that he did not buy it, but he wrote a letter and you sent it to him. I told him that he should give me the address so that I will write and get my own, so Sir, I beg you with much respect, I shall request you to please send me one of the books and a Bible. Sir, if I get the book, I will give it to my friends for them to read, because I hope if they read the book they will be sorry for their sins and they will repent from it. I hope you will send me all that I have requested from you. I thank you for taking time reading my letter. May God bless you to achieve more knowledge to learn more about the Word of God. I will be happy whenever I receive your letter. I would like to end my letter here.

Yours sincerely,

A.Y.

Pastor Tony Alamo,

Dear brother Alamo, I was delighted to come upon your World Newsletter, January-March, 2003 issue. In these end-times, when hearts are fearful for the happenings that are coming upon us, it is most uplifting and gratifying to read such explanations from God's Holy Word expounded in language one can understand. As a lay preacher in the Methodist denomination, I shall be most delighted to receive any back numbers of your newsletter and of course avail myself of your kind offer of the greatest miracle in print: The Messiah According to Bible Prophecy. These are times when England and the U.S.A. especially need the enlightenment of the Holy Spirit to lead us into all truth. May God's richest blessings be with you in your ministry, not only to see precious souls delivered, but that God may be glorified.

Yours in Christ,

he is fooling. There is that old saying, you can fool some of the people some of the time, but you cannot fool all of them all of the time. G.W. Bush's time is winding down. He cannot fool God at all. I laugh when he calls himself a Christian. If he were a Christian, he would not do the things he is doing. The two wars he started were wrong. Like you said in the newsletter, he had no business doing this. The Lord would have taken care of those people. He not only got himself involved in something he shouldn't have, but he's gotten thousands of other people involved.

I was in Texas when he was governor for eight years. He was no good then, and he is no good now. As a matter of fact, he is worse now. I never saw anyone like him and his dad, who get big heads when they do something. I do pray for our so-called president, that he would concentrate on the problems he made here in the United States, instead of all those other countries.

If the people of Iraq wanted to get rid of Saddam, they could have done it. They need not fear no man. All they had to do was to turn to the Lord and fear Him for what He could do. From what I have read and seen, they must have been happy under his leadership, even if it was wrong. Same way with Afghanistan. Look how those people in those two countries are still fighting us.

Now Bush is threatening Syria. I do believe he wants to rule the world before he is finished with his presidency. As you say, him and the Pope. I think they want to be the one world leadership that the Bible speaks of.

You said you won't call yourself a Christian anymore, but a member of Christ's Body. You and I are Christians, Tony, because we are doing things by God's will and not by man's will. Besides, Christ is in you, just like you are in Him. Remember, we were first called Christians in Antioch by Paul. Things have not living in them,<sup>1</sup> which would keep them from committing such super-sinful abominations as homosexuality. God is given glory when we say “no” to the tempter’s temptations. By their refusing to give glory to God, they falsely project to the world that God is] an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping things. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves: Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.

“For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, LEAVING THE NATURAL USE OF THE WOMAN, burned in their lust one toward another; MEN WITH MEN working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, Backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, Without understanding, covenantbreakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.”

1 Corinthians 6:9-10 “Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the Kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor EFFEMINATE, nor ABUSERS OF THEMSELVES with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the Kingdom of God.”

Revelation 21:8 “But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the ABOMINABLE, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.” The definition of abomination is: God’s feeling of extreme disgust, hatred, abhorrence, detestation, and loathing. It is that which is abominable, hateful, wicked, or shamefully vile, such as extreme sin.

Genesis 19:1-13 “But before they [the two angels] lay down [to sleep], the men of the city [the homosexuals], even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all [the homosexuals] the people from every quarter: And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out unto us, that we may know them.” They wanted to have sex changed. We are still called Christians. Now I do not call or think that the Roman Catholics and the Pope are Christians, because they do not go by what God says. They make up their own Bible, which is not inspired by God.

I can back up what those people told you about Vietnam. I spent three tours over there fighting for my country. Many, many times we went out on patrols with either no ammo or just enough rounds to make it look good. Many times we were told not to fire back, and if we did, to fire over their heads. Whenever we would take a town, we were told to get out of it and give it back. Another thing you did not list in your newsletter about Nam was this: whenever we would radio in to our people for a drop, somehow or someway the V.C. always knew about it. This is how they were getting most of their ammo. We couldn’t fight them off because we had no ammo to fight with. As I said before, I spent three tours in Nam.

I worked all of my life, paid taxes, S.S. & etc. When I got arrested they took everything away from me. I cannot collect nothing while here in prison. Don’t get me wrong, I deserve to be here because I committed a crime. I have to do 8½ to 40 years. I am 64 years old, and will never see the outside again because I am not in the best of health. I pray constantly that the Lord will call me home very soon. I don’t have any money at all in here. I have other Christians help me with things, like this paper I’m writing on to you. I have nobody out there to send me anything. So as you can see, I cannot fight the politicians. As you well know, Tony, I don’t have to fight them anymore. The Lord will fight my battle for me. As He says, “Vengeance is Mine, says the Lord.” With Him on my side, how can I lose? I look at it this way, if those crooked politicians who are running this country need my money to live off of, they are welcome to it. They must need it more than I do because they don’t have Jesus Christ like I do. When I think how they are stealing from me, I always say this, “He who is in you (Christ) is greater than he who is in the world” (crooked politicians led by Satan). So let them have my money. I am a Christian, and I will survive for eternity, they won’t.

There is so much more I want to write about on what you wrote. This was by far the best newsletter yet that I have received. Everything you said was true and to the point. I am really proud to be associated with you and your ministry, because you speak the truth and from the Bible. I know I will never get to meet you here on earth because as I said before, I will never get out of here except for when the Lord calls me home, but I do know this, I will meet you in Heaven, and there I will give you a Christian hug and a Christian kiss. I pray the Lord bestows many more blessings upon you. I pray that He will keep on inspiring you to do His work for Him with the short time that we have.

One more thing before I close. Are there any Christians in your ministry, man or woman, who would like to write to me as a pen pal in a Christian way? I do not receive any mail except for your newsletters and literature you send me. Again, may God bless you for the work you are doing for Him. Keep shooting straight with your words because we are not to fear man, we are to fear Him (God) because He is the one who holds our future. I pray I hear personally from you soon. Thanks for everything. Much love from me in Christ’s name,

Ron Beck

"INNOCENCE DOES NOT MATTER," Says Rome's one-world government

a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: show me thy faith without thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works" (Jas. 2:18). If Jesus hadn't done great and mighty works, no one would have believed He was God in the flesh.<sup>11</sup> And if we, Christians with the full Godhead living in us, don't allow God to do His mighty works both in and through us, no one will believe that we are of God.<sup>12</sup> Jesus said the same thing in these words: "Believe Me that I am in the Father, and the Father in Me: or else believe Me for the very works' sake [the works that I do]" (John 14:11).

Christ was in no way a part of religion.<sup>13</sup> He was conceived in Mary's womb in the city of Nazareth, not in Jerusalem, where the religious temple was.<sup>14</sup> He was born in Bethlehem of Judea, not in the religious temple in Jerusalem.<sup>15</sup> He preached on the hills, in the mountains, by the sea, in the desert, and in villages, towns, and cities.<sup>16</sup> When He spoke to the Pharisees, Sadducees, and scribes at the temple, it was to rebuke them.<sup>17</sup> He rebukes all religion by saying, "No man cometh unto the Father, but by Me" (John 14:6). "He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber" (John 10:1).

JUST SAY "NO"

It is of the utmost importance for the mature Christian to realize that the spiritual battle we wage against Satan in this present world is against Satan's attacks on our minds and our flesh.<sup>18</sup>

His manner of warfare is the fiery temptations he sends against our minds and our flesh.<sup>19</sup> The tempter, the devil, and his evil angels wage these battles through his "principalities,...powers,... the rulers of the darkness of this world, [and] spiritual wickedness in high places," which in this world consist of the demons living in all his followers, those who are controlled by Rome, its one-world religion, its government, and its media (Eph. 6:12).<sup>20</sup>

The way we are instructed by the Lord to break the strongholds of Satan, the tempter, is to simply say "no" to his temptations.<sup>21</sup> His strongholds are the peoples of countries, communities, and even the whole world.<sup>22</sup> "Satan...deceiveth the whole world [all the peoples of the world]" (Rev. 12:9).

Again, the fiery darts of Satan, the tempter, are the temptations he fires at our minds, at our thinking processes, and at our flesh.<sup>23</sup> Our minds may become a residence or hotel of thoughts and satanic meditations.<sup>24</sup> The tempter transmits all of his wicked, evil thoughts and imaginations into the minds of the entire world population.<sup>25</sup>

The entire Bible tells us that after salvation, we are to keep all of our hearts, souls, minds, and strength on the Lord.<sup>26</sup> If our thoughts and our meditations are on politics, money, amusement, music, worldly ambition, colleges, universities, schools, false religions or cults, arts, crafts, merchandising, construction, decorating, recipes, sports, clothing, and the thousands of other distractions from the tempter, that he, Satan, is continuously planting in your unguarded brains, your minds, your thoughts, and your meditations will not be centered solely on the first commandment of the Lord, which is to "love the Lord [your] God with ALL [your] heart, and with ALL [your] soul, and with ALL [your] mind, and with ALL [your] strength" (Mark 12:30).<sup>27</sup>

People who are in darkness, people who are lost, people who are on their way to Hell and the lake of fire, never think of the above-mentioned things as being sin or fiery darts from the wicked one. They never think of these things as taking their hearts, souls, minds, and strength away from meditating on the Lord both day and night.<sup>28</sup> Psalm One tells us we must be as trees planted in the Holy Spirit, which is the Living Water, Christ, God's Word, or His breath in us, for eternal life.<sup>29</sup> God's Word also tells us that anything which keeps us from focusing on the Lord is the devil, and is sin.<sup>30</sup> These seemingly "little" things are extremely subtle and extremely evil when doted upon,<sup>31</sup> by this, I mean if you are excessively or foolishly fond of anything other than the Lord.<sup>32</sup> If our minds are on things other than the Lord, these things are an extravagance we cannot afford. Why? Because by thinking about these things that have no eternal value for us or for anyone else in the world, we are damning our souls to the eternal lake of fire.<sup>33</sup> They cause us to break the first commandment, the most important commandment of them all, which is to love God with ALL our heart, ALL our soul, ALL our mind, and ALL our strength. If we break the first commandment, we've broken them all (Jas. 2:10).<sup>34</sup>

Any distraction which takes our hearts, souls, minds, and labors from that which God commands us to do is the same as the evil thoughts and satanic meditations fired from Satan into our brains.<sup>35</sup> Everyone in the world is Satan's target, and with most, he has hit a bull's-eye. Again, God said Satan "deceiveth the whole world" in these last days. (Rev. 12:9)

EVERYTHING

Jesus also said we are to be zealous and enthusiastic in serving Him.<sup>36</sup> We are to serve Him with zeal, and with enthusiasm, with ALL our heart, with ALL our soul, with ALL our mind, and with ALL our strength (Mark 12:30). All those who will spend eternity in Hell and the lake of fire call the preaching of the gospel foolishness and fanaticism. Those who say such things are fanatics for the devil. They are insane for him, according to Holy Scripture.<sup>37</sup> The nations have drunk of Babylon's wine; "therefore the nations are mad [insane]," not the children of the Lord (Jer. 51:7).<sup>38</sup> The word "mad" in Webster's means: "disordered in intellect; crazy; insane; delusion or want of reason; foolish [a fool is one who doesn't believe in God<sup>39</sup>]; rashly or ruinously foolish;<sup>40</sup> imbecile; senseless; dazed; stupefied."

"For the preaching of the cross [of Christ] is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God. For it is written, I [God] will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent...hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save [only those] that BELIEVE" (I Cor. 1:18-21). If the whole world wants to be lost, then let them. "But as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord" (Josh. 24:15). We shall spend eternity in Heaven.

God told me if I write against Rome, Rome's evil one-world cult religions, government, and media, and distribute my writings throughout the world that I shall not be destroyed by the devil, the Antichrist, the Roman cult, its government, and its church. You shall not be destroyed by Satan either if you do not yield to the tempter's temptations.<sup>41</sup> Again, we are the church, and "the gates of Hell shall not prevail against it [us]" (Matt. 16:18).<sup>42</sup> By this I mean you will not be destroyed if you say "no" to the tempter when he fires his fiery temptations at your mind, and your flesh.<sup>43</sup> "Above all, [take up] the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked [the tempter]" (Eph. 6:16). These degenerate and negative ideas, thoughts, and meditations of Satan, the tempter, are first projected into the unregenerated and regenerated minds of people. Then they are acted upon, fulfilled by people participating in Satan's demonic activities, activities we see increasing in the world each and every day.<sup>44</sup>

We are to "[Give no] place to the devil" (Eph. 4:27). We give no place to the devil by exposing his activities and by showing, through the Word of God, that these things which are happening today are truly the activities of Satan, the tempter.<sup>45</sup>

If we love the Lord, we will act towards others as though they were the Lord.<sup>46</sup> We will do everything we can to get the sinner saved, the sick healed, and the innocent people released from unjust sentences, while walking in His power, His life, His Spirit, His breath, His Word. Jesus did it, and He commands us to do it.<sup>47</sup> Here are His words: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He hath anointed Me to preach the gospel to the poor; He hath sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, To preach the acceptable year of the Lord" (Luke 4:18-19).

Prayers to God are powerful.<sup>48</sup> For our benefit, the Almighty tells us, "Before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear" (Isa. 65:24). "Call unto Me, and I will answer thee, and show thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not" (Jer. 33:3). God can free innocent people, just as He freed Peter when "prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him" (Acts 12:5). Always remember what Jesus said in these words: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these My brethren, ye have done it unto Me" (Matt. 25:40). This is God's standard, and we shall be judged by this standard on Judgment Day.<sup>49</sup>

The following story by Mark Mize, an innocent man on death row, is just one of Satan's billions of atrocities committed through his Roman one-world government, which includes the "Justice" Department and the entire judicial system.

Pastor Tony,

Greetings in the name above all names, our Lord and Saviour JESUS CHRIST. I received the Alamo World Newsletter. Don't know who or how my name got on your list, but please put me on your permanent mailing list.

The article/interview with John G. Peeler hit close to my heart. You see, I am on Georgia's death row. Most people are not listening to me because it seemed like something a person of my reputation would do. With a past record and a history of being in several Klansman groups, I went to prison in 1987.

I quit the Klan. On parole, a friend of mine was killed by another friend. I

"INNOCENCE DOES NOT MATTER," Says Rome's one-world government

was arrested, never questioned. Three others were arrested and one sent home. It was then told to be a "Klan" killing by the District Attorney (D.A.) and the Georgia Bureau of Investigation (GBI). They said the victim and I had changed out the electric panel in a "crack house" and knew how to gain entrance via the basement. The victim was supposedly ordered to set fire to the house, but the arson attempt did not catch fire except on the back deck.

They claim the victim was taken to a wooded area and shot for not burning the house down. I went to trial in December 1995. I (my appointed attorney) tried to call the guy who did it [the killing] as witness. His lawyer would not allow him to testify due to pending murder charges. Sent to death row, I was given an appeal attorney. He wanted to push to get me life without parole. I refused, maintaining my innocence.

Being a born-again Christian, I prayed. Prayer uncovers the darkness. [The Word of God uncovers all darkness.<sup>50</sup> The Word of God instructs us all to "Pray without ceasing" (I Thes. 5:17) and to "Pray always" (Luke 21:36).]

I obtained an affidavit from the man that really did the murder and his attorney. The guy who did it admits he killed the victim, no orders, he was drunk and got into an argument and shot the man to death. His lawyer admits that he told her that he murdered the man. I had no part; I've murdered no one. I've never murdered one person, and I never will. The key witness now admits that she lied about me, and I have a statement from her admitting it. She lied to get me convicted because she wanted to be with her baby. The district attorney threatened to keep her in prison for life, and they were going to accuse me of committing murder so that I would have the death penalty. She would be on death row if she didn't lie against me. Finally, her conscience got the best of her. She told the truth. The district attorney kept her in prison for a year because she wouldn't lie about me. She then said she couldn't take it any longer. She lied to get out of prison, just as so many other people do.

In the sworn statement that I have, she admits to perjury [to lying under oath]. An affidavit from the fire marshal found no arson attempt at the house where the prosecutor said arson had taken place. The prosecutor lied. Also, the maintenance company that performed work on the house for ten years swears no electrical work was done, as the D.A. claimed. But more enlightening was the fact the house they claim we knew how to access via the basement DOES NOT HAVE A BASEMENT. They need to find another house or dig a basement.

The crime happened, and I was arrested in October 1994. Because of my past in the Klan, none of the anti-death penalty crusaders will try to help. You would think the media would be all over a case of wrongful conviction with proof, like this one, but none of the press will touch it.

The issues I've mentioned are a brief sketch and have been filed in the Federal District Court in Marion, Georgia. I can go into more detail, if you like, in any of the areas.

It turns out I've spent the last nine years in here fighting state-appointed attorneys who want me to settle for life without parole because of my past. I stand firm and refuse to compromise. I did not kill anyone. I did not order anyone to be killed. I will not spend my life in prison for it.

It is interesting that in one filing where I kept insisting I was innocent, the [Georgia] State Attorney General's office responded that "ACTUAL INNOCENCE DOES NOT MATTER."<sup>51</sup> Can you believe how bold they are?

Now you can see part of why the interview with Peeler caught my attention. Please send me information about your church and keep me on your mailing list to receive the newsletters. After nine years in here I cannot afford to pay except with my prayers.

Feel free to ask any questions. If someone in your church would like to write to a prisoner, I will answer all letters. The only rules the prison has is the letter must have a return address on the outside of the envelope.

Thank you for your time. Fight the good fight and focus on ISAIAH 41:10. May you be blessed in all you do.

A sincere brother in Christ,

Mark

P.S. Please feel free to pass my name and address on to others who might have mailing lists and would be interested in or would like to write a prisoner. Thanks.

Comes now the Affiant, CHRISTOPHER ERIC HATTRUP, who, being first duly sworn by an officer authorized by law to administer oaths, deposes and states as follows:

1. I, CHRISTOPHER ERIC HATTRUP, am over the age of eighteen, and I am competent to testify to the truth of the matters set forth herein.

2. In October 1994, I was arrested and charged with the murder of Eddie Tucker in Oconee County, Georgia. Mark Mize, Samantha Doster, and Terry Mark Allen were also arrested and charged. After Mark Mize was tried and sentenced to death, I pled guilty to the murder and admitted shooting Mr. Tucker. I told the judge that I simply affected Him that His features became so marred and distorted that He no longer resembled a man. This horrifying fact is well nigh unbelievable, but it is clearly revealed of the Messiah in the Old Testament, and just as clearly given in the records concerning the sufferings and death of Jesus the Christ in the New Testament.

“Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged Him.<sup>1</sup> And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on His head”<sup>2</sup> (John 19:1-2).

“Then did they spit in His face, and buffeted [beat and manhandled] Him; and others smote Him with the palms of their hands” (Matt. 26:67), “And they stripped Him, and put on Him a scarlet robe. And when they had platted a crown of thorns, they put it upon His head...and mocked Him...and took the reed, and smote Him on the head” (Matt. 27:28-30).

God permitted, and Jesus endured this horrible suffering not only to fulfill the prophetic picture, but to suffer in our stead. We ask, who but the true Messiah would want to be a Messiah like that?

Before the cross, but leading up to it, His face was marred; on the cross, His form was marred, so the fulfillment of the prediction was complete. The bloody sweat, the traces of the crown of thorns, the spit on His face, and the result of the smiting on the head disfigured His face; while the scourging, the buffeting, the nails driven through His hands and feet, the weight of the body, pulling it out of joint, and the final spear thrust through His side, distorted His body. Add the extreme mental anguish and soul grief, and the result is one so marred that He no longer resembled a man. How much He loved, how much He paid for our redemption!

As we humbly contemplate the intensity of the dreadful sufferings of the Savior, may our hearts be bowed with shame and sorrow for the sin which was the cause of it all, and may we have a greater <sup>1</sup> The scourging itself was violent, inhuman. The scourge was often made of leather thongs, fastened to a handle. At the ends of the thongs, at times, were fastened bits of sharpened metal or rock, that cut and lacerated the flesh of the victim, and turned the back into a bleeding pulp.

<sup>2</sup> We saw thorns in Bible lands having spines two to three inches long. When dried, they were very hard, pointed, and sharp as needles. Such a “crown” if pressed down on the brow, would puncture the skin in a score of places and cause both pain and a gory trickle of blood, which would result in matted, disheveled hair, presenting a horrible appearance.

Dear Tony & Church,

There is no one who writes gospel literature like you. In my mind, it's clear to decide that anyone who rejects these pieces of literature after reading them, referencing the scriptures studiously, as it's clearly indicated, does not reject you or the church, but God, no matter what they say, no matter who they are. I look forward to the next one that comes in the mail, and if you can, send me three each time. I will give the other two to Christians at work. Though born-again, they need this depth of teaching. I have come across such twisted, convoluted heresies that some have got caught up in, it vexes me to no end. Your literature is a guiding light. Where would some of us be if you had stumbled in your walk with the Lord, I shudder to think. Below I'm going to leave an address. This person is saved, but not in a strong church, and knows it. They were sincerely moved by the Lord after reading the literature I gave, and took the time to study the references you give and see the depth to the teaching, and wants to read more, and I told her, it's her and her daughter, that you would send more. I thank you very much, and I praise and thank God for every one of you.

Sincerely,
R.N.

Pinellas Park, Florida

love and undying gratitude to Him who bore all this for us.

(3) A message that will sprinkle and STARTLE many nations, Isaiah 52:15:

“So shall He sprinkle many nations [wash away the sins from the people of many nations with the precious blood He shed on the cross for them all]; the kings shall shut their mouths at Him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.”

God has devised a unique way to catch the attention, win the souls, and win the devotion of men. He Himself, in the person of His Son, suffered so violently, creating so ghastly a scene, that it has IMPRESSED ALL AGES. The memory of Calvary startles the most dormant, cuts the most calloused, stirs the most lethargic. Men now understand both the love of God and the wisdom of God: CALVARY reveals it. Men see both the grace of God and the way God can righteously give both justification and righteousness to those sinners who believe. The grace of God is simply God in Christ with His power living within people, making it possible for them to keep all of His commandments with ease. “For He hath made Him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in Him” (II Cor.

5:21). The gospel will STARTLE many into believing.

(4) A Message that will be DISBELIEVED by Israel, Isaiah 53:1:

“Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the Lord revealed?”

Strange as it may seem, though the shocking message of a suffering Messiah startles many nations, it finds few believers among the Messiah's own people, the Jews, and very few believers among the Gentiles. “Strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it” (Matt. 7:14).

In the New Testament we read of the fulfillment of this prediction. “But though He [Jesus] had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on Him: That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?” (John 12:37-38).

didn't know why I had shot Mr. Tucker, other than that I was real drunk at the time and I had a gun in my hands. I was sentenced to life with the possibility of parole, and I am currently serving my sentence at the Telfair State Prison in Helena, Georgia.

3. Since I pled guilty, I have tried to get out the truth of what happened that night in October 1994. And the truth is that I was extremely drunk, I had a gun in my hands, and I shot Eddie Tucker and killed him. At Mark Mize's motion for new trial hearing, I tried to explain this.

4. Earlier that night in October, 1994, we had been at a bar, and I drank enough alcohol to get me real drunk by the time we made it to the woods. Now, I was not real fond of Eddie Tucker'— I just didn't think much of him. And as I got more intoxicated at the bar I got into an argument with Tucker over some stupid thing that didn't really matter anyway. I felt angry and wanted to fight. Later we went out to the woods off Highway 78 to go camping. That had been the plan from earlier in the day. We had a gun with us because everyone where I come from usually brings some kind of a gun along for protection when they go camping in the woods. I remember that I got a hold of that gun and shot

Dear Pastor Tony Alamo,

Thank you and thank you a million times for sending your literature and Bibles to me. Your newsletters have always inspired and changed many lives. Prayerfully, I and my wife are distributing all that you are sending to me. May the Holy Spirit continue to bless your ministry and your co-workers. The testimonies that are printed in the newsletters are proof that you are a World Pastor, and show that Jesus is the answer of God to mankind forever. My ministry decided to pray for you and request partnership for extending your ministry in my country. We are facing many troubles. While we are distributing your living literature, leaders are persecuting us at the party of B.J.P., R.S.S. and V.H.P.P., etc. Sometimes they are trying to beat us because they can't agree with the distribution of your literature in the area of Telangana and Rayalaseema. Please pray for us, and their salvation. I will send you some pictures in another letter. Pastor Tony Alamo, I know that it is very expensive to send such materials as I request. I pray to our Lord that He can give you the necessary money so that you can prepare the materials which I am requesting, so that it can come and help our people to understand the Word of God. Our people are thirsty for the Word of God, and your most precious literature. Thank you again, and don't stop what you are doing. We need you now more than ever. Praise God.

Yours in His ministry,

Eddie Tucker dead. Mark Mize was not with me when I shot Mr. Tucker, and I have never told anyone otherwise. As I recall, Mark Mize was real shocked and angry with me after I shot Tucker.

5. When I was arrested for the murder, I told the cops that this was what happened when you get all messed up on alcohol like I did.

6. There was never any plan to do away with Eddie Tucker. And there was never any plan or attempt to burn down a crack house. I certainly never had anything to do with any such thing, and I have never told anyone otherwise.

7. Up to the time I pled guilty, I had an appointed lawyer named Jo Carol Nessel-Sale. At some point early on I knew, from her telling me, that the state's theory of the case was that Mark Mize had ordered me to kill Mr. Tucker. Now, I was facing the death penalty. I had a son. Ms. Nessel-Sale told me that if that was the theory, then maybe I had a chance to get out from under the death penalty and live to see my son grow up. She indicated to me that the police and the District Attorney really wanted to nail Mark Mize, and that if I could remember someone ordering me or prodding me to shoot, that that would help me. So I told her that I thought maybe someone might have done that. But that was not the truth. That was what I said to help myself. I have never had any memory of anyone pushing me to do anything.

8. Killing someone is hard to live with, and I have had a lot of time to go over and over the events of that night. I know that I shot Eddie Tucker all three times. I remember Mark Mize being shocked and angry when I came out of the woods, and we ran straightaway back to the car. If Mark Mize is guilty of anything, he is guilty of trying to clean up after my mess.

9. Believe me, I wish I could blame all this on someone else, but I can't in good conscience do that. Unfortunately for me and Mr. Tucker, this case is all about what happens when you mix guns and alcohol. I wish I could go back and change what happened. I can't do that. But I can try and make the truth known so that Mark Mize is not caged and killed for something he didn't do. I want the public and the courts to know that I am solely responsible for Eddie Tucker's death, and that if Mark Mize is executed, then the state will have killed an innocent man.

CONFESSION FROM THE MURDERER'S ATTORNEY

State of Georgia
 County of Clarke

AFFIDAVIT OF JO CAROL NESSET-SALE

Comes now the Affiant, Jo Carol Nesset-Sale, who, being first duly sworn by an officer authorized by law to administer oaths, deposes and states as follows:

1. I, Jo Carol Nesset-Sale, am over the age of eighteen, and I am competent to testify to the truth of the matters set forth herein.

2. I am an attorney practicing in the Athens area. I was appointed to represent Christopher Eric Hatstrup after he was arrested and charged with the murder of Eddie Tucker in October 1994. When Chris was arrested he made statements to the arresting agents that he had really messed up and that was what happened when you got drunk. Throughout the course of my representation of Chris, this remained his sense of what had happened that night.

3. Chris's story to me was that he, Mark Mize, Tucker and the rest had decided to camp out in the woods near Highway 78 and the Appalachian River that night in October 1994. According to Chris, they took a gun into the woods for protection. Chris insisted there was never any plan to kill Tucker, but rather he and Tucker had been drunk and had argued for some reason at a bar just prior to the homicide, and then Chris had shot Tucker.

4. At some point I told him that the state's theory of the case included the alleged arson attempt on the Athens "crack house." I knew that part of the story was going to be important because Tucker's alleged failure to light the fire helped show Mark Mize's motive in supposedly getting Chris to shoot Tucker. From the time he heard of the arson allegation, Chris insisted that there had been no arson attempt that night. When we heard what Paul McDonald, his roommate, had eventually said about the arson, he was angry. Chris was adamant that he had never told McDonald about any arson. He suggested that McDonald made that up to avoid drug charges stemming from the large amount of McDonald's marijuana that was lying around the house when the police searched it.

5. When I looked at the other witnesses' (i.e., Samantha Doster, Brian Dove and Mark Allen) statements and testimony, I noticed how they changed their versions of the events of that night and created more elaborate scenarios after having been debriefed by police and the D.A.'s office. I wondered if they had seen each others' statements. I was quite

Dear Pastor Alamo,

Calvary greetings to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. I pray that He will continue to increase you spiritually and materially. It is astonishing to find a person of your type in His ministry, who is working wholeheartedly for God. You might not know the impact you are making in the life of others. You might not know how many souls you are winning for Christ every second. You might not know all great things you are doing in order to spread the gospel, but God, who sees everything, knows what you are doing, and He will surely reward you, and He will never depart from you, in Jesus name. Amen. Thanks for the six Holy Bibles and Alamo World Newsletters you sent me. They have been distributed as the Spirit leads, and they were gratefully received. I therefore wish to use this opportunity to register my name in your mailing list, to be one of those distributing your literatures, magazines and Bibles in Nigeria. I observed that many souls were won during and after the distribution of the magazines and Bibles. I had wanted to use the Bibles with my family, but the demands from others were more than that of my family, so I gave out the Bibles in order to win souls for the Kingdom. My dear pastor, it would be appreciated if you send me the following items for distribution in a crusade scheduled for November, 2003, in the northern part of Nigeria: copies of Dry Bones, The Messiah, Holy Bibles, Love and Affection, and How to Have God's Life Living in You. It is interesting to let you know that the Moslems dominate the northern part of Nigeria, and it would be advantageous, encouraging and blessings if we have the above items to give out during the crusade. We believe that God will use your ministries to help in this direction, as you have been doing to others. I look forward to your favor and godly reply. Remain blessed continuously in the Lord.

concerned unreliable, and (perhaps) newly minted testimony was being used to secure capital offense convictions.

6. It was clear to me that the D.A. was trying to use the alleged "Klan" connection to bolster what was really a weak case for premeditated murder against anyone. It always seemed odd that the state was determined to make Mize the really bad guy in this incident, when the most credible evidence gave him at best a secondary role. Because Chris denied a key part of the state's case (the arson) and admitted to shooting Tucker, I was able to work out an arrangement with the D.A. whereby Chris would plead guilty and receive a life sentence after Mize's trial, which prevented Chris from taking the stand at Mize's trial. At Chris's plea colloquy, when asked why he had shot Eddie Tucker, he told the court that he did not know why he had done it, a statement consistent with what he had told me during the entirety of my representation of him.

7. I was called to testify at Mark

EX-GIRLFRIEND OF THE
INNOCENT MAN, MARK MIZE

State of Georgia
County of Fulton

AFFIDAVIT OF
MARY SAMANTHA DOSTER

Comes now the Affiant, who, being first duly sworn by the officer authorized by law to administer oaths, deposes and states as follows:

1. I, Mary Samantha Doster, am over the age of eighteen, and I am competent to testify to the truth of the matters set forth herein.

2. I am providing this statement today because in 1995 I helped to put Mark Mize on death row by saying things that I did not know first hand and that were embellished to the jury that convicted him. I helped the prosecution because I had spent a year in jail, nearly half that time on segregated lock-down, and I couldn't stand it anymore. I knew I was innocent, but I became terrified that I would get the death penalty if I didn't help them get Mark. In the end, I just wanted to be out of jail with my nine-year-old son and shut off the whole mess. When my lawyer, Mr. Elkins, told me that all the charges would be dropped if I helped the district attorney put Mark away, I decided I valued my freedom and being with my son. Today, I want to set the record straight.

3. On or about October 24, 1994, I was arrested and charged with the murder of Eddie Tucker in Oconee County, Georgia. The guy I was seeing at the time, Mark Mize, along with Mark Allen and Chris Hattrup, were arrested on the same charges.

4. After I was arrested, I was first put in a cell at the Oconee County jail, but later I was moved to the Clarke County jail, where I stayed until I was released in October 1995. I spent about five or six months on lock-down, in isolation, while I was there. I was about 26 years old at the time I was arrested, and I had an eight-year-old son. It was probably the worst experience of my life to be locked up away from my son and facing the death penalty.

5. I corresponded with Mark Mize for several months. We would talk about how we were being set up to take the fall for something we didn't do, which was true. Mark doesn't trust lawyers very much and he would tell me not to trust my lawyer, Mr. Elkins. He would tell me that Elkins was in cahoots with the district attorney. I sat in jail for a long time thinking that I should hold out because maybe a jury would find me and Mark not guilty. But as the year wore on life

Dear Pastor Alamo,

I gave some of your gospel literature to my friends who didn't know anything about God, and now they have all repented from their sins. They have all chosen God as their personal Savior. They are sending the Word of God to others. They are saying that God has changed them, so they will always follow God. Please, Sir, we are praying hard that your ministry will develop, and we know by the grace of God that it will. Pastor, my problem is I don't have a Bible to read. We always read only your gospel literature, so we are asking if you can try to send us some so that we can also send the Words of God to many people. We want you to send us your preachings so that we can know much more from you. I will end here, and I hope to hear from you soon. Thank you.

Dear ladies and gentlemen of Alamo,

My name is Joshua. A friend had a copy of your Alamo Newsletter with the Another Pearl Harbor article. I am always skeptical with religious literature, as ninety percent of what passes for Christianity today is nothing more than bald-faced lies, being spewed by a bunch of John 8:44's. It took me about two minutes to see that your newsletter was very different, and I devoured it all at once! Please add me to your mailing list and send some literature if you could! I found your exposés on the Roman Catholics and Jesuits especially telling! You are releasing "truth bombs" of the highest degree! I hope to hear from you as I am quite shocked I haven't heard of you before!

in jail weighed real heavy on my mental state, and I missed my son something awful. I was scared that I would spend the rest of my life locked up or even be killed in the electric chair.

6. At some point around October 1995, my lawyer told me that he could get the district attorney to drop all the charges against me if I agreed to help the prosecution against Mark Mize. By that time, I was ready to do just about anything to get out of jail and out from under the death penalty charges. I told Mr. Elkins that I would give a statement to the district attorney in late October 1995.

7. Before I spoke with the D.A., my lawyer showed me the transcripts of all the statements given by Brian Dove, Mark Allen, Paul MacDonald and other witnesses. I met with the D.A. three or four times before the trial. He showed me all of the transcripts and the videotapes of the statements of Terry Mark Allen and Brian Dove. The D.A. had a long list of questions, he went over with me. Many times he did not like my answers to his questions and he told me I could not say that at trial. He told me what I could and could not say at trial. The D.A. told me not to say I was drunk on the night all of this stuff happened. He wanted me to say I only had a beer or two. When I talked with the D.A. he told me they had wanted Mark Mize for a long time and would do what they needed to do to get him. I do not know what he meant by that comment, but the way he said it frightened me. I was told so much by my lawyer and by the D.A., I basically just repeated what the statements said, and I added what I was told by them some in order to make my statement sound convincing. I was afraid not to tell their story. The D.A. told me I could not speak to Mark Mize's defense lawyers about what we talked about. I was also told if I did not go to each trial they would seek the death penalty on me. After I was released, Investigator Jimmy Collingsworth came to my house almost every day. I was told he was my bodyguard, but I was scared of him. He talked with my mother-in-law and I was told that I had to do exactly what they wanted me to do or I would be in trouble. I felt like I was being watched all the time.

8. When I testified before the jury, I said some things that I did not know were true but was told to say by the D.A. because I was frightened and afraid of what this was doing to my son, Daniel. I never saw any attempt or knew of any attempt on Mark Mize's or anybody else's part to burn down any house on the night of October 15, 1994. The D.A. told me about it in one of our meetings and that a can of lighter fluid had been found at where the fire was supposed to have happened. There was also never any plan or intention to hurt or kill anyone that night, including Eddie Tucker. Mark Mize never said anything that ever led me to believe that he wanted to do anything to Eddie Tucker, other than go camping with him. Mark Mize and Eddie were friends. Eddie was even living with us at the time and worked with Mark at England Electric. It is true that Chris Hatstrup was upset at Eddie Tucker for some reason. Eddie and Chris were both real drunk that night. Before we went camping Chris and Eddie got into an argument at the bar. Chris was real agitated with Eddie. Eddie was also fussing with Mark Allen. I never saw Eddie get into any arguments with Mark Mize.

9. When we got into the woods on the Walton County line, I was walking down the path with Brian Dove behind me. Mark Mize and Mark Allen were maybe five or six feet in front of me, and Eddie Tucker had moved way on up deeper into the woods and I couldn't see him. Chris Hatstrup came from behind me, moved on past me and the Marks and disappeared into the woods where Tucker had gone. The four of us (me, Brian and the two Marks) were moving to the campsite when we heard the first two shots. No one said anything or told us to stop. We all stopped when we heard the two shots. Everyone was shocked, including Mark Mize. I saw Chris come back out of the woods after the second shot. He was out of breath and excited. He said something, but I couldn't hear exactly what it was. I heard one of the Marks say something like "What did you do that for!?" Then Chris went back into the woods where he had come from. Mark Mize started to follow him into the woods, but we heard another shot before he got on into the woods. I didn't hear anyone say anything else.

10. Mark Mize and Mark Allen went on into the woods and then came out with Chris Hatstrup. I heard someone say that we should get out of here. We were all hurrying back to the car parked by the highway. Mark Mize was angry at Chris and a little panicky. We all were. Then we got in the car and we got rid of the gun. No one said anything about why it had been done or did we understand why it had been done. No one understood why Chris had shot Eddie. We didn't want to get in trouble for it, though, so we all decided to tell a story that we had dropped off Eddie at some convenient store before we went camping.

11. Mark Mize never planned to kill Eddie that night or told me he "shot" Eddie. There was never any plan to hurt Eddie Tucker because he did not burn down a crack house, ever. This whole thing was between two drunks—Chris Hatstrup and Eddie Tucker—and no one else had anything to do with it. It was not unusual for any of these guys to have guns along when we were camping. I learned that night that guns and alcohol don't mix.

12. I can't bear to think that Mark Mize might be executed because I was frightened and weak and said what the D.A. wanted me to say. So many things were said to me prior to trial that I know a lot of things I said were fed to me by the D.A. and by my lawyer during our conversations. I was even told that they would come after me and seek the death penalty on me if I talked to anyone during Mark's appeal about my conversations with the district attorney. What I have said in this affidavit is the truth.

PALMER SINGLETON

Comes now the Affiant, Palmer Singleton, who, being first duly sworn by an officer authorized by law to administer oaths, affirms:

1. I, Palmer Singleton, am over the age of eighteen, and I am competent to testify to the truth of the matters set forth herein.

2. I am a staff attorney with the Southern Center for Human Rights, a non-profit law office which provides representation for indigent defendants facing the death penalty in Georgia and Alabama. In 1996 or early 1997, I was appointed to represent William Mark Mize in motion for new trial proceedings in Oconee County, Georgia, after trial counsel withdrew from the case.

3. Throughout my involvement with Mark Mize, he insisted that he had nothing to do with the murder of Eddie Tucker, and that the witnesses against him were lying. Mark Mize (and I) always believed that he had been wrongly convicted.

4. During my involvement in the case, I focused on guilt-innocence issues only to the extent they could be used to control and manipulate Mr. Mize. Despite Mr. Mize's obvious and repeated demands, I read this as a penalty phase case. When I obtained an undisclosed document that appeared to be based on pretrial prosecution interviews with Samantha Doster, I focused on the significance of the document as the main non-record guilt-innocence issue in the case.

5. I concentrated my investigation on penalty phase issues – specifically, mitigating life history information which was not presented to Mark Mize's jury. I also obtained court records, including transcripts, of Mark's prior criminal convictions which had been introduced as non-statutory aggravating circumstances at his sentencing. I did not initiate habeas corpus proceedings in any of those cases.

6. My read of the evidence led me to believe that the murder of Eddie Tucker did not involve any kind of conspiracy. I believed that Chris Hattrup and Eddie Tucker had gotten drunk and argued, and then Hattrup had shot Tucker. If Mark Mize was guilty of anything, he was guilty of trying to get rid of the gun and put the mess behind them. The state exploited Mize's involvement in a putative Klan organization to make the death of Eddie Tucker into something that it was not: a sinister, well organized and criminal plot.

7. The alleged attempt to burn down a supposed "crack house" in furtherance of this Klan group's goals, and specifically Tucker's alleged failure to light the fire, was employed by the state to turn an incident involving a fight between a couple of drunken good-old-boys into one featuring elaborate paramilitary maneuvers and political terrorism. If I had had information that the state's witnesses were persuaded to lie about the alleged arson attempt, that would have been invaluable in casting doubt on the state's entire theory of the case and its false explanation for the events leading to Tucker's death.

AFFIDAVIT OF JOHN BULLA

Comes now the Affiant, John Bulla, who, being first duly sworn by an officer authorized by law to administer oaths, deposes and states as follows:

1. I, John Bulla, am over the age of eighteen, and I am competent to testify to the truth of the matters set forth herein.

2. I am a heating and air installer with ACME Heating and Air in Danielsville, Georgia. I service commercial and residential H/AC needs in the Athens area. Since 1996 I have provided periodic service at a residence at 965 North Chase Street in Athens.

3. That house has no basement, but only a very limited crawlspace. I have been in the crawlspace, which is easily accessible through an opening in the foundation. The ground is dirt. There is no access to the house from the crawlspace. You would have to cut a hole in the floor to get into the house from the crawlspace. Anyone who knows the house would know these things about it.

4. When I began servicing the house in 1996, I noticed that there had been no work on the H/AC or electrical panel for at least the prior ten years. Any H/AC tech looking at the wiring at the house would have observed the same thing. I do the wiring for the units and there was no new electrical panel in this house.

WARNING FROM GOD TO ALL EPISCOPALIANS

with them, men with men, which again, is stated in Romans 1:32 to be worthy of eternal death.<sup>2</sup> I Cor. 6:9-10 states people such as these shall not enter the Kingdom of Heaven. If God doesn't allow homosexuals in Heaven, He also will not allow them to take part in or be a part of the true church of God, the body of Christ, His future bride.<sup>3</sup>

The homosexuals were smitten with blindness. The Lord sent the angels to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah and all the homosexuals with all the other sinners in those cities.

Leviticus 18:22, 26-30 "Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination...Ye shall therefore keep My statutes and My judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations; neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that sojourneth among you: (For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled;) That the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you. For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls that commit them shall be cut off [stoned to death] from among their people. Therefore shall ye keep Mine ordinance, that ye commit not any one of these abominable customs, which were committed before you, and that ye defile not yourselves therein: I am the Lord your God." Again, the definition of abomination is: God's feeling of extreme disgust, hatred, abhorrence, detestation, and loathing. It is that which is abominable, hateful, wicked, or shamefully vile, such as extreme sin.

Leviticus 20:13 "If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them."

Deuteronomy 23:17 "There shall be no whore of the daughters of Israel, nor a SODOMITE of the sons of Israel [or of spiritual Israel, the body of Christ]." Revelation 21:27 states, "And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that DEFILETH, neither whatsoever worketh ABOMINATION, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life."<sup>4</sup>

I Kings 14:24 "And there were also SODOMITES in the land: and they did according to all the ABOMINATIONS of the nations which the Lord cast out before the children of Israel."

I Kings 15:11-12 "And Asa did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord, as did David his father. And he took away the SODOMITES out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made."

II Kings 23:7 "And [the man of God] brake down the houses of the SODOMITES."

These are not my words. They are the Words of Almighty God.

The message that you've just read was thoroughly distributed at the 108th Annual Episcopalian Convention held October 16-18, 2003, in Texarkana, Texas. We thank God that the clergy and laymen at this convention made a strong decision. They decided not to fund the national Episcopalian church. My congratulations to this convention. Bravo to them for reprovng the world, rebuking the homosexuals in the love of God. "This is the love of God, that we keep His commandments" (I John 5:3). This explosive decision was on the front page of the Texarkana Gazette on Sunday, the day after the convention. Following is an excerpt from the article. This is the caption of the story:

DIOCESE TO WITHHOLD $512,161 Episcopalians won't send funds to national church

By Sabrina McCormick
Texarkana Gazette

The Episcopal Diocese of Dallas voted Saturday to withhold half a million dollars from the Episcopal Church USA in protest of the national organization's sanctioning of an openly gay bishop and its stance on same-sex unions.

The vote came on the final day of the 108th Annual Convention of the Dallas Diocese, which was held at Texarkana's St. James Day School.

Missioner for Communications Jim Goodson said this was the first time the Diocese of Dallas has ever voted to give zero percent of their budget to the national organization. He said traditionally the national church presents a figure needed based on their budget to support the church. The recommendation was $682,881 for 2004, based on previous years. The executive council and the financial committee opted to send 75 percent of the recommendation to the national church, which would have equaled $512,161.

However, the clergy and lay persons voted to send zero percent to the national church. The statement comes as a strong message to the Episcopal Church USA, which voted to sanction the ordination of an openly gay bishop and same sex unions in early August.

The Rt. Rev. James M. Stanton says the legislation allows for individual churches to give to the national church only if they choose to. "It gives the individual church the right to choose where their money goes," Stanton said. Stanton said the decision does not mean they are splitting off from the ECUSA. "My task is to hold us together despite divisions," Stanton said.

God states, "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers" (II Cor. 6:14). It is a commandment that they are to separate themselves, and consecrate themselves from such sinners.<sup>5</sup> It is of the utmost importance that they obey God. To disobey God "is as the sin of witchcraft" (I Sam. 15:23). People who will not separate themselves from sinners are not consecrated to God, and they are not holy. Remember, "without [holiness] no man shall see the Lord" (Heb. 12:14). Jesus, who is the Word of God, is "the [only] way, the [only] truth, and the [only] life" (John 14:6). Anyone attempting to enter the Kingdom of Heaven other than by Him, "the same is a thief and a robber" (John 10:1).

Revelation chapter 21 states that Christ is coming for His bride, which is the church, His body, "arrayed in fine linen, clean and white" (Rev. 19:8) without "spot...and without blemish" (Eph. 5:27). That means there cannot be any sin in the church. Today the church is to know the Word of God so well that they can measure sinners and put them outside of the church, out into the world with the "Gentiles" (Rev. 11:2). There is no place for homosexuals or any sinners except repentant sinners in the Kingdom of Heaven.<sup>6</sup>

Receive the truth and live, saith the Lord.<sup>7</sup> Jesus said, and I paraphrase, that anyone who hears what Jesus says and does what He says is a wise person, and anyone who hears the Word of God and will not do as He commands is a fool (Matt. 7:24-27).

"INNOCENCE DOES NOT MATTER," Says Rome's one-world government

PASTOR ALAMO'S MESSAGE CONTINUES

To fulfill God's purpose, God Himself in Christ must do the work both in and through us.<sup>52</sup> Christ said, "Without Me ye can do nothing" (John 15:5). Un-saved people know it is impossible for them to live a godly life, which means a life of obedience to God, unless something supernatural happens unto them, unless God's power, God's strength, enters them from Heaven.<sup>53</sup> Everyone must have God in them to do God's will, to accomplish this incredible task.<sup>54</sup> In Christ, "all things are possible" (Matt. 19:26).

God is in Christ, and God in Christ by the Spirit lives in we who are the saints.<sup>55</sup> We who were at one time without Christ, unsaved, know how wonderfully fantastic it is to have God in Christ by the Spirit not only live in us but work both in and through us, enabling us to do all things in Christ.<sup>56</sup>

WHAT FOOLS!

When we realize the Spirit of God is tugging at our spirits to come to Him, He is calling us in order to give us rest from all the things of the world.<sup>57</sup> Most people who have relied on their wits, their former associations in the world, their fame, their fortune, their positions, and their temporal power find it hard to trust God in Christ enough to get on the altar with Christ and stay there with Him to the end.<sup>58</sup> They are afraid to leave the meaningless things they currently are doing so they can have eternal life.<sup>59</sup> They don't believe that God, who created the entire universe and the fullness thereof, could have anything better for them.<sup>60</sup> What fools! They also don't believe that God could give them enough power within themselves to abstain from their secret lives of perversion, their sinfulness.<sup>61</sup> Again, what fools!

On the last day, God will resurrect everyone from the dead, "they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation" (John 5:29).<sup>62</sup> This is unparalleled power. We must believe that God has the ability to give us the power to sustain holiness and perfection.<sup>63</sup> God would never command anyone to be perfect and holy if it were impossible.<sup>64</sup> God would be a cruel God if He imposed an impossible task on the human race. Remember, in Christ "all things are possible" (Matt. 19:26). "We are more than conquerors through Him that loved us" (Rom. 8:37). Don't be a fool. Don't believe Satan as Eve did.<sup>65</sup> Don't pass up eternal life, power, and glory for what your carnal mind thinks. Don't let your inferior human understanding argue with the Word of God, which is the Spirit of God.<sup>66</sup> Our human brains are made out of dirt, just like the rest of our human bodies. Believe God and live. "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved" (Acts 16:31).

We have to realize that God is calling us into an entirely new realm where, after we go through the fire, we can be wealthier than trillionaires.<sup>67</sup> The Lord always gives us much more than we ever had when we let go of the earthly things that occupy our time.<sup>68</sup>

"The earth is the Lord's, and the fullness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein" (Psa. 24:1). God owns the world and the fullness thereof. He also owns the entire universe. When we've given our former lives as a sacrifice to Him, we become "heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ [in everything that He has]" (Rom. 8:17).<sup>69</sup>

If we surrender our lives unto Him, He will save our household, which means our loved ones.<sup>70</sup> Our loved ones will never be in Hell, but will spend eternity in the Kingdom of Heaven if, after their salvation, they continue on in the Lord serving Him till the end. What could be a better deal? For people with sense, this is the greatest offer, an offer that no one in their right mind could refuse.

God's power is infinitely stronger than political power.<sup>71</sup> The government is supposed to be of the people, by the people, and for the people, but only under the law of God. It is not to be of perverts, of the devil, of his evil angels or of his ungodly special interest groups. Instead of following Satan, his demonic powers, and his principalities of darkness in high places, we are to obey God by rebuking them for their satanic sinfulness and their perversion of God's law. We are to tell them what God says they must do to have eternal life.<sup>72</sup> This is the life of God in Christ in us by the Spirit, which grows up into the Tree of Life to the fullness of the stature of the Lord Jesus Christ (Eph. 4:13). Those who overcome "shall rule [the nations] with a rod of iron" (Rev. 2:26-27).

The power we have in God is eons or millions of light years more powerful than all of the most powerful men in

New York

Dear Pastor Alamo,

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I have been a Christian for some time. I thank and praise Christ Jesus for calling me out of the world of sin, and into His marvelous light of righteousness. Also, I thank and praise Jesus for you and the enlightening, inspiring inspiration and deeper life ministry that He has given you, and to impart to souls worldwide. Pastor Alamo, your God-given ministry has opened my eyes to more of Christ Jesus' revelations and truths. I thank the Lord Jesus for every word He has spoken through you, great spiritual food for the soul. Glory, hallelujah, what a mighty God we serve. He's worthy to be praised.

Last year, I came in contact with your different Ministries World Newsletters at a check cashing store, located on 8th Avenue off of West 125th Street, Harlem, New York, and all of a sudden, your Ministries World Newsletters discontinued. Every so often, when traveling to the westbound location, at Central Park West, and from the bin on the sidewalk in the past on different occasions I have gotten different copies, and was very delighted to receive your Ministries World Newsletters. Truly they are righteousness, truth, and spiritual food for the soul. Pastor Alamo, I would like to know from you if there are other locations in New York where I can get continuous copies of your Alamo Christian Ministries World Newsletters. If any copies are available at the church, please send me three copies of January-March, 2003, and three copies of April-May, 2003, The Messiah book, and other literature you may have. I will be very grateful for your reply. May Jehovah, Jesus, continue to bless you, your family, the ministry that He has given you, and the people of the Most High who are standing in faith with you and the ministry. I am looking forward to hearing from you soon.

Very truly yours,
C.R. New York, New York

the world put together.<sup>73</sup> The ministers of God are the true rulers of, not only this world, but the world to come.<sup>74</sup> Those that rule for Christ shall never die, and shall never spend eternity in Hell.<sup>75</sup> They shall spend eternity in Heaven. It is written, "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him" and keep His commandments, those who rule here on earth with Him (I Cor. 2:9).

We are living in the last days. The Lord is sending these powerful messages to the world through me to you as a last call.<sup>76</sup> "For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?" (Mark 8:36-37). The Lord asks all of us to give up our former lives so that all of us can, in Him, triumph over sin, Satan, the world, our own flesh, our weaknesses, and all of our carnal desires. All these things are mortified or deadened when the Spirit of God in Christ enters us.<sup>77</sup> We become new creatures in Christ (II Cor. 5:17). We become members of a holy nation, a new nationality of people that shall never die, shall never grow old, shall always stay young, and shall never suffer again (I Pet. 2:9).<sup>78</sup> We'll live forever, and we'll all look better than we ever have in our entire lives. No more hair transplants. No more face-lifts. No more makeup. We will look more gorgeous than any motion picture star ever looked, and again, we will always stay young. There are no tears in Heaven, no oppressors, no separation, no sickness, no disease, and no illness.<sup>79</sup> Those who were blind will see. Those who have lost

West Indies

Dear Pastor Alamo,

May the grace and peace of God be multiplied to you. There's no way to tell you how happy I am to have received the two packages that you sent to me. Thank you so much for The Messiah books and the two Bibles that you sent to me, also. The devil is furious because of your work. We are praying together for the advancement of the Kingdom of Jesus, the great overcomer!

Reverend, many people have been asking me for your writings. Please do not stop sending me your writings in French. The packages that you've sent have already been freely distributed. It's a powerful lever for the salvation of precious souls. Thanks for your kindness. May God keep you, give you more courage and power in His ministry!

Mexico

Hello, Pastor Tony Alamo,

How are you? I hope you are doing good in health. I am always praying for you and your ministry. Thank you for the book, The Messiah, the Bibles, and the literature. God will touch many lives through this literature. I will let you know how it will bring fruit when I finish distributing it.

It will be a great joy to see one day millions of people from all nationalities, tribes and tongues praising the Lord, like the Apostle John saw in his vision (Rev. 7:9-10).

I am very happy with what the Lord is doing in many parts of the world. It has been a pleasure talking to you through this letter. This is all for now. I will be writing you again.

Your brother in Christ, sity even for faith because all that is in Heaven will be seen. Here "we walk by faith, not by sight" (II Cor. 5:7). But in Heaven, faith is terminated because we will see it all and, with God in Christ, we will own it all.<sup>80</sup> The Lord wants us all to be there. The Lord has no desire to see anyone perish and spend eternity in Hell, in the lake of fire (II Pet. 3:9).

If the Lord is calling you now, and I believe He is, don't hesitate. Hesitation causes the heart to harden.<sup>81</sup> Hesitation is what caused Pharaoh's heart to harden, and the constant hardening of one's heart, by refusing to come unto the Lord when He calls, makes it far more difficult to grasp on to Him ever again.

God wants to use your body as His holy temple to live in here on earth. He tells you, "Give not that which is holy unto the dogs [this is your body for Him to live in]" (Matt. 7:6). To live any other way than what the Lord prescribes is giving the place that God wants to make holy to live in to the dogs.<sup>82</sup> In other words, don't cast the pearls of this wisdom to the swine, to those you know will attempt to talk you out of it.<sup>83</sup> They want to stop you from leaving a place in this world they think is so high, when in God's eyes, it is so low (Matt. 7:6).<sup>84</sup>

Reach out for eternal life now, and

Christ will take your hand. He will help you to be the man or woman of God that He wants you to be.<sup>85</sup> Reach out to Jesus right now. He's reaching out to you. Possess your initial eternal life now by saying this prayer:

Prayer

My Lord and my God, have mercy upon my soul, a sinner.<sup>1</sup> I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of the living God.<sup>2</sup> I believe that He died on the cross and shed His precious blood for the forgiveness of all my sins.<sup>3</sup> I believe that God raised Jesus from the dead by the power of the Holy Spirit<sup>4</sup> and that He sits on the right hand of God at this moment, hearing my confession of sin and this prayer.<sup>5</sup> I open up the door of my heart and I invite You into my heart, Lord Jesus.<sup>6</sup> Wash all of my filthy sins away in the precious blood that You shed in my place on the cross at Calvary.<sup>7</sup> You will not turn me away, Lord Jesus, You will forgive my sins and save my soul. I know because Your Word, the Bible says so.<sup>8</sup> Your Word says that You will turn no one away, and that includes me.<sup>9</sup> Therefore, I know that You have heard me, and I know that You have answered me, and I know that I am saved.<sup>10</sup> And I thank You, Lord Jesus, for saving my soul, and I will show my thankfulness by doing as You command and sin no more.<sup>11</sup>

You've just completed the first step in a series of five steps which are necessary to receive salvation. Your second step is to deny yourself and take up the cross daily for the purpose of mortifying yourself, that is, for putting to death your own will, your soulful self, and the world with all of its lusts. All these must be baptized into the death of Christ.

Step three is your resurrection from the satanic life of Adam unto the sinless life of Christ. Step four is your ascension into a position of authority to reign for God on earth, and the fifth step is to reign for God on earth to the end for the purpose of bringing about the Kingdom of Heaven on earth. You must learn the Word of God, then submit yourself and do what the Word says, so that the church and the world may see evidence of your submission to God's Word, His order, and His authority in and by you.

Praise the Lord. May God reward you abundantly.
