DOES GOD PERMIT A WOMAN THE RIGHT TO HAVE AN ABORTION IF SHE IS A VICTIM OF RAPE?

by Tony Alamo

GOD says, "Behold, all souls are MINE; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is MINE: the soul that sinneth, it shall die. But if a man be just, and do that which is lawful and right, And hath not eaten upon the mountains [worshipped idols], neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbor's wife [committed adultery with her], neither hath come near to a menstruous woman, And hath not oppressed any, but hath restored to the debtor his pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment; He that hath not given forth upon usury, neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath executed true judgment between man and man, Hath walked in MY statutes, and hath kept MY judgments, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, saith the LORD GOD.

"If he beget a son that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and that doeth the like to any one of these things, And that doeth not any of those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains [worshipped idols], and defiled his neighbour's wife [committed adultery with her], Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge [hath not paid their tithes], and hath lifted up his eyes to the idols, hath committed abomination, Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live [eternally]? he shall not live [eternally]: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon him.

"Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and doeth not such like, That hath not eaten upon the mountains [worshipped idols], neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, hath not defiled his neighbor's wife [committed adultery with her], Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withholden the pledge [hath not withheld his tithes and offerings], neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment, That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed MY judgments, hath walked in MY statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live [eternally]. As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die [eternally] in his iniquity.

"Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all MY statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live [eternally]. The soul that sinneth, it shall die [eternally]. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.

“But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all MY statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live [eternally], he shall not die [eternally]. All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his righteousness that he hath done he shall live [eternally]. Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die [eternally]? saith the LORD GOD: and not that he should return from his ways, and live [eternally]?” (Ezekiel 18:4-23).

GOD not only says that all souls are HIS, but in Numbers 16:22, Moses and Aaron said HE is “the GOD of the spirits of ALL flesh.” In Jeremiah 32:27 GOD says, “I am the LORD, the GOD of ALL flesh.” GOD, in Jeremiah 1:5, told Jeremiah, “Before I formed thee in the belly, I knew thee.”

How could anyone have the audacity to destroy the soul, the spirit, and the flesh of any human baby that GOD knew before they were formed in the belly, let alone before they came out of the womb, even in the case of rape?

The real law is the law of GOD.¹ Let us see what the law of GOD says: “If a man be found lying with a woman married to an husband, then they shall both of them die [physically and spiritually], both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: so shalt thou put away evil from Israel. If a damsel that is a virgin be betrothed [engaged] unto an husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her; Then ye shall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and ye shall stone them with stones that they die; the damsel, because she cried not, being in the city; and the man, because he hath humbled his neighbour’s wife: so thou shalt put away evil from among you. But if a man find a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man force her [rapes her], and lie with her: then the man only that lay with her shall die: But unto the damsel thou shalt do nothing; there is in the damsel no sin worthy of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and slayeth him, even so is this matter: For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damsel cried [cried for help because she didn’t want to be raped], and there was none to save her [from being raped]. If a man find a damsel that is a virgin, which is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her [rapes her], and they be found; Then the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel’s father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife; because he hath humbled her, he may not put her away [divorce her] all his days” (Deuteronomy 22:22-29).

When I first saw this law I thought, “How could a woman want to marry any man that raped her?” Then immediately, my mind went back to that day forty-eight years ago in a lawyer’s office in Beverly Hills where I first became acquainted with GOD. HE commanded me to tell the people in that office that JESUS CHRIST was coming back to earth again. GOD’S SPIRIT was upon me with such power, and I began reasoning with HIM, saying, “LORD, I’ll tell them tomorrow. I’ll call them on the phone. I’ll send them cables, telegrams, but don’t make me tell them now.” The office was filled with an entourage of my people and other people from the movie industry. I thought they would have me committed to an insane asylum if I did what HE was telling me to say and do. So GOD started pulling my spirit, my soul, in and out of my body, and let me know that if I didn’t say what HE was telling me to say, I would die right then and there. There wouldn’t be anything I could do to stop HIM from killing me. At the same time, I was feeling how powerful and intelligent HE is, and knew that no one could stop HIM from doing whatever HE wanted to do. Before this happened to me, I never believed in GOD or JESUS. I was considered the best advertising agent in any kind of business including show business. From that day forth, I quit being an advertising agent and began seeking the LORD. I have no problem believing anything that GOD said or says. If GOD tells a man he must marry an unmarried woman that he has raped and support her the rest of her life, and then tells the woman she must marry him and let him support her until the day she dies, I would suggest they do exactly what GOD commands them to do.

Again, when I first saw this law, for an instant it seemed harsh to me. Now that I know GOD and HIS power, I also know that HE is THE BOSS. You know, today’s women rape very easy. They may look like angels, but they’re not. I’ve met many of them that look like angels that I found to be liars and devils.

If a woman becomes pregnant because she was raped, she may not have an abortion. If she did have an abortion, that would be first degree murder, and she would be sent to Hell for it. Exodus 20:13, in the original Hebrew, says, “Thou shalt not murder,” and whosoever commits murder must be put to death. “Murder” includes the murder of unborn babies. “He that smiteth a man, so that he die, shall be surely put to death” (Exodus 21:12). What shall happen to all murderers? “The fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and MURDERERS, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death” (Revelation 21:8). And people are liars that say that unborn babies are not people and are not alive. If these babies are not alive, then how could they murder them? And why should they murder them if they’re not alive?

Those who abort babies, those who perform abortions, and those who become suicide bombers are all MURDERERS. You ought to repent now because judgment is coming sooner than you think.

In Exodus 21:22-25, we see the penalty for an accidental abortion. “If men strive, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruit depart from her, and yet no mischief follow: he shall be surely punished, according as the woman’s husband will lay upon him; and he shall pay as the judges determine. And if any mischief follow, then thou shalt give LIFE FOR LIFE, Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.” A baby growing in the mother’s womb is a life.

In Matthew 22:31b-32, JESUS said, “Have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by GOD, saying, I am the GOD of Abraham, and the GOD of Isaac, and the GOD of Jacob? GOD is not the GOD of the dead, but of the LIVING.” Again, a baby growing in the mother’s womb is LIVING and growing, and GOD is the human baby’s GOD.²

Idolaters are well-known for murdering their own children, up to this very day. Jeremiah 32:35 states, “And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire [murder/abortion] unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into MY mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.”

Two prostitutes came before King Solomon, the wisest man on earth,³ with a dispute: “Then came there two women, that were harlots, unto the king, and stood before him. And the one woman said, O my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house. And it came to pass the third day after that I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also: and we were together; there was no stranger with us in the house, save we two in the house.

“And this woman’s child died in the night; because she overlaid it. And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thine handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom. And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead: but when I had considered it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, which I did bear. And the other woman said, Nay; but the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this said, No; but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son. Thus they spake before the king. Then said the king, The one saith, This is my son that liveth, and thy son is the dead: and the other saith, Nay; but thy son is the dead, and my son is the living. And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the king. And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other.

“Then spake the woman whose the living child was unto the king, for her bowels yearned upon her son, and she said, O my lord, give her the living child, and in no wise

Dear Reverend Tony,

Greetings in the love of the Lord Jesus. Hoping and we know that the angelic hosts protect and take care of you, and never forget that you are not alone. You have God, His angels and the children of God who support you in everything.

Brother, I need a bigger box of assorted literature, newsletters and two big Bibles and five regular Bibles. All your material is distributed with God’s anointing and they have been a great blessing to those who receive them. Your work will never ever be in vain. God will recompense you, be sure of that.

slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but divide it. Then the king answered and said, Give her the living child, and in no wise slay it: she is the mother thereof. And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of GOD was in him, to do judgment" (1 Kings 3:16-28).

It would be a good thing for the women of today who love to murder little babies to begin having the same heart as the compassionate prostitute mentioned above, the one who said to spare the baby! She was the mother!

The actor Tony Curtis was asked what it was like kissing Marilyn Monroe. As beautiful as most men think she was, Tony Curtis stated, "It was like kissing Hitler!" I've heard that Marilyn Monroe had a couple of abortions, that she murdered a couple of babies. This is probably why Curtis, a Jew, remembering the death camps of World War II, where six million innocent Jews were put to death by Hitler, thought it was like kissing Hitler when he kissed Marilyn Monroe in a movie. This is the way I feel about the women of today that believe in abortion, murder! How could any man want to kiss one of them?

Psalm 82:3-4 states, "Defend the poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy [the "needy" being unborn humans that are being judged as sub-human]. Deliver the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked." Do this and live

Pastor Tony,

I wanted to tell you about my father. My father called me on the phone today and I led him through the sinner's prayer. My father was crying tears of joy and he said he was tingling all over and could feel the Holy Spirit. He was so happy.

I give God so much praise and thanksgiving for His faithfulness and promises, that if we faithfully serve Him, He will save our house. Praise the Lord.

When I joined the ministry, I had no contact with my father. He was not involved in my life and I had no idea where he was or how to contact him so I could witness to him. I asked the Lord, "How am I going to witness to my dad when I don't know anything about him or how to contact him?" I asked the Lord to make a way for me.

God moved for me. My grandfather gave me my father's address and I wrote my father a letter in 2012. Almost an entire year went by and I never received a response. I had known that my father wanted nothing to do with me. He left my mom when I was nine years old and committed adultery on my mom. My parents and I were raised in false doctrine, believing we were saved. We believed "no one is perfect" and "once saved, always saved."

About five months ago, my father called me at the church and said he had the letter I had written to him in front of him. I had told my dad how the Lord saved me and I was serving the Lord at the Tony Alamo Christian Ministries. For the past five months, I have been witnessing to my dad, and I sent him the Gospel literature.

Today he called and was ready for salvation. Praise the Lord! He is happy I am here and supports the ministry. I thank the Lord for saving my dad and putting him back in my life because for over twenty years, he hasn't been. Thank you, Jesus, for this miracle. My dad knows he is saved now and that he has to keep God's commandments.

Praise the Lord!

Dear Pastor Tony Alamo,

I greet you all in the wonderful name of our Lord Jesus Christ. May He richly bless you all in your ministry.

I received the package which you sent. Thank you. Your world newsletters are making many people to come to Jesus here. They have even made me to study theology. Please, I would like to be your distributor so that we can win more souls to Jesus.

Please send me a Bible and other newsletters for the work of the Lord to continue moving forward.

Sorry for the bad news which I read in your letter, that you are highly persecuted by the government there. I always pray and fast for you so that the Lord Jesus Christ who died for the church should always be with you. When I read about your persecution, tears flowed down my face. Brethren, I encourage you to work even harder when you are persecuted. This shows us that we live in the world where the devil is, but Christians do not belong to this world. We ought to do the will of God, not what man wants. We will continue praying for you here in Zambia. The Lord will always be with His children until the end when we shall see Him coming to take us in the clouds. Amen.

Yours faithfully,

Dear Tony Alamo Ministries:

We just returned from a visit with our son who joined the ministry two years ago. I wanted to send a message to those unbelievers. We were unbelievers of Tony Alamo Ministries until our son joined, and even then, we were not sure. We read many things on the internet about child abuse, jail terms, child slavery. As I understand, the accusations took place in Arkansas. We did not see any signs of these things in California.

We are ex-Catholics who do believe in God but do not believe in all the teachings of the Catholic faith.

Our son David had many problems that we could not explain. He was diagnosed with clinical depression when he was in his teenage years. We tried many things to appease this—medicine, counseling, diet, and exercise. Nothing helped. As the years progressed, he slipped deeper into depression, and his weight skyrocketed. We did not go to church on a regular basis and even when I asked David to join us at church, he was not interested.

He would tell you today that he was an atheist. He became involved with the internet and one thing led to another. He was removed from our house and he found solace with his grandmother in Michigan. When she passed on, David found his way to the Tony Alamo Christian Ministry, thanks to Gail Brubach who was instrumental in bringing David to the church.

We prayed for David every day to find happiness. Little did we know it would be with God, the same God that David did not know previously. The minute we stepped into the church of Tony Alamo Christian Ministries and saw our son, we could see that since his arrival, there was a dramatic difference for the better. His weight had reduced, his depression gone (noticed immediately by the smile on his face and his new found glow), and his attitude on life had changed entirely. He was now working for God.

Still an unbeliever in this Christian ministry (not of God), but I could see the power that God had over a kid (now 31, no longer a kid) who previously was not a church person by any means, had no belief in the Bible, and was anti-church at every turn. As we attended church services, we started to understand the power that the Bible instilled in every person. We actually read the Bible, and sang songs that opened our hearts.

Pennsylvania

A pastor called from Pennsylvania to say he first learned of the church in 1973, and that he's been using Pastor Alamo's literature to bring messages to his congregation. He said Pastor Alamo's literature is so in-depth that he can get about 30 messages from one piece of literature. He requested 25 copies of the most recent newsletters to have more messages to deliver to his congregation.

It was the best four days of voluntary church that we had ever been to.

The first night, the songs were so uplifting, and the service so moving that, thanks again to Gail Brubach, I was saved. Tears were streaming down my face. I've never experienced such a moving church service. The following three nights that we were able to be there were just as moving, and we were sad when we had to leave. We have met some extraordinary members of the church.

Tony Alamo Christian Ministries opens the doors every night to the many homeless. In Los Angeles, free of charge, they are transported to the church where a beautiful service is performed with uplifting music. After services a full meal is provided free of charge to those in need. I've never seen any abuse, only love for fellow men/women. This church is a shining star. God has put them here for a reason. Same as the Bible verse Matthew 20:27-34:

"And whosoever will be chief among you, let him be your servant: Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give His life a ransom for many. And as they departed from Jericho, a great multitude followed Him.

And, behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, Thou Son of David. And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, Thou Son of David. And Jesus stood still, and called them, and said, What will ye that I shall do unto you? They say unto Him, Lord, that our eyes may be opened. So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him."

Basically my message is—when you are touched by God, your eyes will be opened, as ours was in the church. It was a magical experience. I hope others find this church. Once your eyes have been opened like ours have been, you will see too.

Sincerely,

I hope you are well, surrounded with people of faith. I wish to thank you for all the correspondence that you take the trouble to send to me, for all the literature you send me, and which make me reflect and continue with my firm conviction of wanting to amend my path and to thank my God the Father for all His blessings. I hope that you continue encouraging all the believers to change and continue in the ways of the truth. Hopefully, in the name of my Lord Jesus, God allows you to continue with such a titanic work and that your church continues onward as a lighthouse in the midst of the storm.

All the best from me to you. May God take care of you and protect you and continue to guide you. Do not cease to keep us prisoners in your prayers, and if you could send us a Bible to not be destitute. Without more for now.

May God keep you for a long time with good.

Testimony of Sally Demoulin

I want to start by first and foremost thanking and praising the Lord Jesus Christ for shedding His precious blood and dying on the cross for my sins and the sins of the world; the ultimate gift for us to have true life and eternity in the Kingdom of Heaven.

The Lord found me 28 and a half years ago. I was not looking for God, neither did I know that I was lost. I was born in Brooklyn, New York, raised a Catholic. I remember at about the age of 15 or 16 being in a ferry boat on the Hudson River, just taking in the sights. And then we passed by a cliff that had "Jesus Saves" written on it in big white letters. My first thought was "Saves? Saves from what?" Having been brought up Catholic, I had never heard about salvation, much less that Jesus saved.

My parents were very strict with me, so at the age of 18 I decided that I was old enough to do what I wanted to do without them telling me what I could or could not do. I left my parents' house so I could be "free," or so I thought. Some months later, I found myself married; a year later I had a child. Just when I thought life was good and thought I was happy, things just went sour; and some years later I was divorced, a single mom. So here I was "free" again and I was going to keep it that way because I didn't want to lean or depend on anybody. I was of the mind that I could do things better by myself.

I had a good paying job, a nice home and had no lack of anything. I made sure that my child and I had everything we needed and wanted. I just went about my business and lived life as I pleased. Sometime later I found myself in another relationship. A few years later, I found out this man was hooked on heroin and was stealing and lying to get the money that he needed for his drug habit. I hid all my feelings and problems within. To people who knew me, it looked as though I was doing very well and was happy. But I was very miserable, unhappy and wanted a change but didn't know what to do. Things got so bad that I wanted to take my life. I thought about swallowing a bottle of pills and just dying. But I was afraid of what came after death and what was going to happen to my children after I was gone. I sat down and cried and asked God to change my life.

After a time, I thought that maybe all I needed was to change the way I thought, so I started to read different self-help books that were out on the market: "Positive Thinking," "Dianetics," "Faith is the Answer," you name it, I read it. But the more books I read, the more confused I was. When there was no change, I decided that I needed to go back to church. So at lunch time, I would go to St. Patrick's Cathedral in New York City, which was close to my job, and I would go in, light candles and kneel down to pray. But I would come out feeling worse than when I first went in. One day I remember going into that "church" building, feeling very distraught. As I sat and looked around that humongous building I noticed that at the top of the pillars there were these ugly looking gargoyles, something I remember seeing in the movie The Omen. I was totally appalled and thought to myself "what on earth is something so evil doing in a place that is supposed to be holy?" I walked out and crossed the street to get a better look at the outside of the building from a distance and noticed that the same type of ugly creatures were on the corners of the building. Needless to say, I never set foot inside that building or any other Catholic building after that.

Then one Saturday in February of 1985, I went out shopping with my children. This day was unusually warm. It should have been freezing cold, but the temperature was about 75 degrees, and it scared me. I felt like something was terribly wrong and that the world was coming to an end. I didn't know it then, but I know now that it was the Spirit of the Lord making me know this. I was terrified.

Two weeks later, I was witnessed to by a couple of brothers from the Tony and Susan Alamo Christian Foundation, who were at the outpost in Brooklyn seeking lost souls. I was told why Jesus shed His blood and died on the cross; that there was a Heaven and a Hell; and that if I died with sin on my soul I would go to Hell for eternity, and there was no escape. In my pride I totally forgot the fear I had felt just two weeks before. I didn't think I needed Jesus or God. But I thank God that He didn't give up on me. A few weeks later I found myself on the phone with someone from the church saying that old-fashioned sinner's prayer of repentance and accepting the Lord Jesus Christ into my heart. As soon as I finished saying the prayer, I felt as light as a feather. My sins were washed away in the precious blood of Jesus. I was made whole, I felt brand new. I had a joy that I can't put into words. I felt really alive for the first time in my life, and I had peace.

I started going to our storefront church in Brooklyn. We had services, a meal afterwards, and then we'd have Bible reading groups. I went every night; I wanted to know more about this wonderful new life I had in Christ. The brothers encouraged me to move into the ministry so I could be around other Christian sisters and families, and grow strong in the Lord. They told me about the beautiful facilities in Arkansas that were family oriented; they talked about the services they had twice a day, the Christian school with a Christian curriculum, the Olympic sized pool and play areas for the children. And that all sounded great, but I did not want to move away from what I was familiar with. I wanted to be able to stay in Brooklyn and just go to church. Well, the Lord had other plans for me. It was going to be His way.

During the Memorial Day weekend that same year, we were in Coney Island distributing Gospel literature and witnessing to souls. I had to look for a restroom and the only one on the boardwalk was on the other side of a clam bar. I walked through the clam bar to the restroom area, and because there was a problem with the restroom, I had to wait in line. While waiting, I looked into the clam bar at the people who were drinking, dancing and carrying on, thinking they were having a great time. And all of a sudden, the Lord gave me an open vision; everything turned dark, and there were flames and fire, and the people that had been dancing looked like dark silhouettes just crashing into each other. It was as though I was looking into Hell from the outside, but I could feel the heat from the flames. This lasted just a few moments, but it felt like an eternity. When it was over, no words could express the fear I felt, and the Lord gave me the understanding that I had to move away from there and into the ministry. I couldn't get out of Brooklyn fast enough. Arrangements were made, and we moved into the ministry a short time after I gave notice to my employer. I have been at the Alamo Christian Ministries ever since.

When I moved into the Alamo Christian Ministries, I found out that we have a church in Los Angeles, CA, where the ministry first started and where hundreds of thousands of souls have been won to the Lord. It was also exciting to hear about the churches all over the world that were a result of people who gave their lives to the Lord after having read the messages God has given Pastor Alamo and he has passed on to the world.

This is just the beginning of my story. There is so much that God has done in these 28 and a half years. The best years of my life. I would not exchange them for anything that the world has to offer, because everything the world offers leads to death and Hell, but everything that God offers leads to life, life more abundant, and then an eternity in Heaven. Praise the Lord!!!!

Tony Alamo, World Pastor,

I have gone through all the Gospel literature, books, CDs you sent to me and I found that I have the same vision with you and have decided to flock with you, come rain, come shine.

I am married to Evangelist (Mrs.) Betty Igba since 1988. We are blessed with two children—Naomi and Joshua. We are into ministering the Word of God to the lost for the past 13 years. I would be very grateful if you can consider and appoint me as one of your pastors in Africa into your ministry, Tony Alamo Christian Church. I have started gathering and training prayer warriors towards this vision. I am expecting one million members for the Tony Alamo Christian Church, Owerri, Nigeria.

May God replenish you all over there as you keep the ministry light

Rev. Eleazer Igba (with microphone) bringing the Gospel into the schools of Owerri, Imo State, Nigeria, with Pastor Alamo's Holy Spirit-filled gospel literature shining. Do not despair because weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. Your miracles are on the way.

I and my wife, Betty, have been evangelizing within and outside our city with the Tony Alamo Christian literature, and souls are coming to Christ with divine speed. Even Roman Catholics and occult members are repenting after reading the literature.

May the Almighty God who lifted you up never let you down, Amen. Mother Easter Igba says you are wonderful.

Yours faithfully,

(eternally). Repent of all your sins. Say this prayer:

My LORD and my GOD, have mercy upon my soul, a sinner.⁴ I believe that JESUS CHRIST is the SON of the living GOD.⁵ I believe that HE died on the cross and shed HIS precious blood for the forgiveness of all my former sins.⁶ I believe that GOD raised JESUS from the dead by the power of the HOLY SPIRIT,⁷ and that HE sits on the right hand of GOD at this moment hearing my confession of sin and this prayer.⁸ I open up the door of my heart, and I invite YOU into my heart, LORD JESUS.⁹ Wash all of my filthy sins away in the precious blood that YOU shed in my place on the cross at Calvary.¹⁰ YOU will not turn me away, LORD JESUS; YOU will forgive my sins and save my soul. I know because YOUR WORD, the Bible, says so.¹¹ YOUR WORD says that YOU will turn no one away, and that includes me.¹² Therefore, I know that YOU have heard me, and I know that YOU have answered me, and I know that I am saved.¹³ And I thank YOU, LORD JESUS, for saving my soul, and I will show my thankfulness by doing as YOU command and sin no more.¹⁴

After salvation, JESUS said to be baptized, fully submerged in water, in the name of the FATHER, and of the SON, and of the HOLY SPIRIT.¹⁵ Diligently study the KJV Bible, and do what it says.¹⁶

If you want the world saved, as JESUS commands, then don't rob GOD of HIS tithes and offerings. GOD said, "Will a man rob GOD? Yet ye have robbed ME. But ye say, Wherein have we robbed THEE? In tithes and offerings. Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye have robbed ME, even this whole nation [and this whole world]. Bring ye all the tithes [a 'tithe' is 10% of your gross income] into the storehouse, that there may be meat [Spiritual food] in MINE house [souls saved], and prove ME now herewith, saith the LORD of HOSTS, if I will not open you the windows of Heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of HOSTS. And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightful land, saith the LORD of HOSTS" (Malachi 3:8-12).
