A COMMITMENT TO PRAY FOR FRONT-LINE WORKERS Partners in the Gospel

I thank my God in all my remembrance of you ... because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now. ... I hold you in my heart, for you are all partakers with me of grace, both in my imprisonment and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel.

—The Apostle Paul in Philippians 1:3-7

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

My heart is filled with joy when I meet with front-line gospel workers and hear their passion for sharing the gospel on the world's most difficult and dangerous mission fields. I am humbled as I hear of the hardships and trials they face; they sacrifice and suffer gladly, thankful for being chosen by God to carry out His work.

I was deeply moved recently after meeting with "Carlos," a front-line worker in Cuba, who told me how his work as an evangelist has affected him and his family. Serving God has proved costly not only to Carlos and his wife but also to their children. Because of Carlos's witness for Christ, the Communist government has denied his son, "Juan," any opportunity for higher education and advancement. I will never forget Juan's response when I turned to him and asked if it bothered him to give up so much for the ministry. "We all have a price to pay," he said. When I asked him how we could help, his only request was for prayer.

We thank you for being so vital to broadcast the gospel—you are a front line soldier of God! Amen
